

Dr.S. ARMSTRONG , Professor and Head, Department of English, University of Madras, Chennai, is currently coordinator, Center for Canadian Studies. He is a former recipient of Shastri Indo-Canadian Pre-Doc Fellowship at the University of Guelph, Canada and Fulbright-Nehru Visiting Associate Professor at the Native American Studies, University of California at Davis, CA, USA. He is coordinator of four language laboratories. As a chairperson of Postgraduate Board of Studies in English and Member of Academic Council, he plays a major role in framing syllabi for the postgraduate courses in English for the affiliating colleges. He is a Governor-Chancellor nominee to the Senate of the University of Madras and of the Planning Board of the Periyar University. He has presented 30 papers in the international (USA, Canada, Australia, Sri Lanka and Italy) and 58 papers in the national conferences. He is credited with 10 international and 12 national level publications. His books have been published by Creative Books and Emerald.