THE DHAHAN LECTURE SERIES - Dec 3rd, 2021

Development Initiatives for Indigenous Communities in India,
The KISS (Kalinga Institute of Social Services) Model

Learning and growing is a collaborative effort and this event gives us an opportunity to learn about the successful “KISS model”, on empowering indigenous youth through education.

The event will be a virtual knowledge-sharing conversation to expand horizons.

About the Speaker: Prof. Achyuta Samanta is an educationist, humanitarian, and a statesman who grew up in Kalarabanka, Odisha. He founded a polytechnic institution in 1992, while working as a Chemistry Lecturer. The industry training institution grew into Kalinga Institute of Industrial Technology, (KIIT) by 2004. In the same year, he also founded Kalinga Institute of Social Sciences (KISS) to provide free education to the indigenous kids.
