

Dr Prachi Kaul

Director, Shastri Indo-Canadian Institute (SICI)

Dr. Prachi Kaul is the Director of Shastri Indo-Canadian Institute for its office in India. She has been associated with the Institute for more than 16 years now. An alumna of IIT Delhi, Dr Kaul has served to international and national bodies like Plan International and National University of Educational Planning and Administration before joining the Shastri Institute.

She is a social scientist with keen interest in studying aspirations and social mobility of the masses and its relation to Higher Education. Dr. Kaul serves on the advisory boards of a couple of academic and research institutions and joint working groups in between India and Canada on different domains.