INVITES YOU TO A FILM FESTIVAL

Indigenous Peoples in Québec New Perspectives, New Voices

1:30 PM: LE PEUPLE INVISIBLE (2007)

Directed by renowned Quebec poet and singer Richard Desjardins, 'The Invisible People' critically revisits the forgotten history of unequal relationships between the white settlers and the Algonquins in Northern Québec and illustrates their constant resistance to oppression. Winner of the Best Documentary at the Jutra Awards.

3:30 PM: AVANT LES RUES (2016)

Focussing on current conflictual identities, 'Before the Street' tells the story of a young Atikamekh who experiences the redemptory power of his return to healing rituals and community practices. Winner of the Best Canadian Feature Film at the Whistler Film Festival and the Discovery Award of the Directors Guild of Canada.

6:00 PM: CE QU'IL FAUT POUR VIVRE (2008)

Set in the 1950s 'The Necessities of Life' vividly explores the cultural shock of an Inuit hunter brought to Quebec city to cure his tuberculosis and the touching relationship he develops with a French Canadian nurse and a young urbanised Inuit boy. Winner of the Most Popular Canadian Feature Film at the Montreal Film Festival Awards.
