

SHASTRI INDO-CANADIAN INSTITUTE (SICI), GOLDEN JUBILEE
CONFERENCE AND LECTURE SERIES GRANT (GJCLSG), 2020-21

Topic: Paradigms of Water Governance and Climate Change in the Indian Context

Friday 26st February 2021

- Organizers introduce each speaker before the talk
- Duration of each talk is of 45 minutes
- Each talk is followed by a Q&A session of 15 minutes
- During the Q&A sessions, the audience can interact with speakers
- Organizers give final comments to close the session

Program Schedule:

4.00-4.05 pm	Welcome and brief about the SICI, and the Golden Jubilee Conference and Lecture Series Grant (GJCLSG) 2020-21, and introducing the first speaker	Dr. Farhat Naz (HSS, IITJ) Dr. K.J. George (HSS, IITJ)
4.05-4.15 pm	Inaugural of the lecture	Dr. Prachi Kaul, Director, SICI
4.15-5.15 pm	First talk Title: Political Economy of India's Water Management	Speaker: Dr. Aditi Mukherji, Research Group Leader on Climate Change, Adaptation and Resilience, International Water Management Institute, India Q&amp;A: 15 minutes
5.15 pm-6.20 pm	Second talk:	Introducing the second speaker: 5 minutes Speaker:

	Title: Climate Research and Local Experiences: Insights from the Himalayas	Dr. Karine Gagne, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology & Anthropology, University of Guelph, Canada Q&amp;A: 15 minutes
6.20 – 6.25 pm	Concluding Remarks by the organizers	Dr. Farhat Naz Dr. K.J. George

For further information, please contact:

Dr. Farhat Naz, (Assistant Professor of Sociology, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, IITJ)

Email: farhat@iitj.ac.in

Dr. K.J. George, (Associate Professor of Philosophy, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, IITJ)

Email: kjg@iitj.ac.in